POLICYHOLDER LAW FIRMS TURN TO FEE EXPERT KEN MOSCARET IN MAJOR INSURANCE RECOVERY CASES

Posted Tuesday, December 14, 2010 | Categories - NALFA News

Attorney fee expert Ken Moscaret, Esq., a NALFA member, has been retained by policyholder law firms to testify regarding the reasonableness of multimillion-dollar underlying defense fees at issue in large, complex insurance recovery actions. Recent examples include environmental contamination/toxic tort, asbestos, and securities fraud cases.

ENVIRONMENTAL COVERAGE LITIGATION

- Policyholder fee expert in 2010 in Los Angeles federal court coverage action involving $25 million in defense fees in large, complex underlying environmental contamination/toxic tort litigation. Expert report submitted.
- Policyholder fee expert in 2010 in Los Angeles state court coverage action regarding $15 million in defense fees incurred in other large, complex environmental contamination lawsuits.

ASBESTOS COVERAGE LITIGATION

- Policyholder fee expert in 2010 in two San Francisco/Los Angeles state court coverage actions involving $50 million in defense fees billed in thousands of asbestos lawsuits nationwide.

SECURITIES FRAUD COVERAGE LITIGATION

- Policyholder fee expert in 2010 testifying in Maryland state court coverage action involving $375 million in defense fees incurred in a series of securities fraud lawsuits nationwide. Expert deposition given. Case settled favorably for policyholder on the verge of trial.
- Policyholder fee expert in 2009 in Ohio federal court coverage action regarding $12 million in defense fees in several underlying securities fraud lawsuits. Expert report submitted.

Mr. Moscaret has testified for both policyholders and insurers in other types of insurance recovery cases, as well.
